

Term 1 blog

Tigers have made a great start to a busy first term in year 5/6! We've been really busy!

We have been learning yoga this term. Some of us had done it before and lots are now doing it at home too!

We've been doing a lot of reading this term. Our class book was 'Letters from the Lighthouse' by Emma Carroll and we have been writing diaries and letters based on the book. It's a story about evacuees during World War 2 and we've been writing their letters and diaries. We've made great progress with our reading rainbow bookmarks and some of us have reached the yellow bookmark already! We have a fabulous class library in Tigers class and we've enjoyed browsing through the World War 2 books, picturebooks and non-fiction books in the class.

For 'Black History Month', we took part in an event called 'Red card for racism' where we went to the park to meet pupils from Greenmeadow school and held up red cards. A drone took our picture and it got into the Swindon Advertiser! Afterwards a local Councillor Bose Patrick-Okoh came to speak to us and we had a great discussion about everyday racism. You can see the photos below.

We have been doing a lot of work about World War 2 to get ready for our training to be part of an auxiliary unit next term....
